

THE ARGUS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Goldsboro and Vicinity History in Brief. Epitome of Sayings and Doings, Wise and Otherwise, Run Down and Run in by Omnipresent Ubiquitous, Local "Grand Rounds."

We are glad to note the recovery from his recent illness and the return to business of Mr. U. M. Gillikin, the popular fish dealer of our city.

Mr. B. Cohen, of the popular New York Racket Store, has just returned from New York and other Northern cities, where he has bought heavily of Spring and Summer dress goods, fancy goods, novelties and millinery, which will arrive this week and go on display in time for Easter purchasers.

The colored people have had a monopoly of the matrimonial market for the past week. The books in the Register's office show that licenses were issued to colored couples only as follows: Claud Benton to Cora Patrick, Richard Crawford to Lou Locklear, Walter Evans to Bettie Lucas, Willis Graham to Sarah Steward.

Dr. W. R. Price, L. B. B., the distinguished psychological scientist, will deliver a series of lectures at the Court House next week, commencing Monday night. The lectures will be given for the benefit of the Goldsboro Reading Room, and should be liberally attended by our citizens. Dr. Price comes highly endorsed by the press, clergy, college professors, and physicians wherever he has lectured.

And now after all those distinguished gentlemen who honored our city with their presence this week, as delegates to the Knights of Pythias celebration, return to their respective homes all over eastern North Carolina, and on up to Charlotte in the west, and report that they found Goldsboro an absolutely "free port," without a case of small pox, or the semblance of one in our midst, and everybody here "well and hearty," we may have an end to the equities as to "small pox in Goldsboro."

Sheriff Scott carried A. A. McKinnon back to the Insane Asylum at Raleigh on Tuesday. The man was seen on the streets on Monday afternoon acting queerly and in answer to a telegram sent to Dr. Geo. L. Kirby Sheriff Scott was informed that McKinnon had escaped the guards and was missing. The home of the unfortunate man is in Duplin county, so it is said, and it is thought that he intended to return to his family. When taken into custody he told his name and where he was from.

Woodland Crumbs.
Our roads are much better since they were worked, but just a little leveling down would be so nice just now, while the wind is blowing.

The sadness brought upon our section by the death of Bro. Jas. G. Hollowell still lingers, and we all feel that a good man has fallen, and that we have lost one who was a good husband, a good father, an active member of the church, a good neighbor and a useful man in general, but we must not be discouraged, but just double our diligence and close up the broken ranks, while our land is sandy and not very rich, we believe we have one of the best sections in the country. All peaceable and quiet and not a drunkard in it.

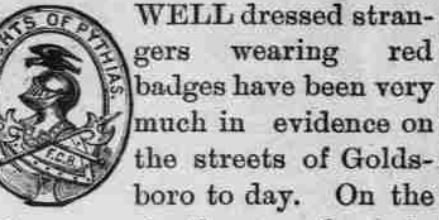

Master Owen P. el who was sick with pneumonia a few weeks ago, is out again, we are glad to know, Mr. David Lewis who has moved to the Darius Brogden place, seems to be enjoying his new home right much, it is however just like we expected for they have as good neighbors as can be found in any section, Parkers, Peels, Howells, Granthams, Overmans, Coxes, Jinnetts, Kings, Brogden and so on. Well, the weather is fine and we must stop writing and go to work. READER.

WHOOPING
One of the most distressing sights is to see a child almost choking with the dreadful whooping cough. Give the child Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, relief will be obtained at once and the sufferer will soon be cured.

Cures Whooping Cough quickly. Doses are small and pleasant to take. Do not delay. Price 25 cts. At all druggists.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Daily Argus of Monday.

WELL dressed strangers wearing red badges have been very much in evidence on the streets of Goldsboro to day. On the badges worn by these gentlemanly strangers is printed in gold the ensignia of the order of Knights of Pythias, a fact which proclaims them apostles of the historic Damon and Pythias, upon whose fastness of friendship this latter day fraternal organization is supposed to have originated.

The occasion of the coming together of these celebrities of the order is a district meeting to be held this evening in the Castle Hall of Ruffin Lodge No. 6, for which event the local Pythians have been making big preparation for several days. To-day as they meet their visiting brothers the bonds of friendship can be somewhat measured by the welcome smile and warm grasp of the hand, the peculiar way in which the latter is done being the manner in which they make themselves known one to another.

A large number of delegates are already on the scene and a still larger number are expected to arrive this evening on the special train over the A. & N. C. R. R., and also on the Southern from the west due here at 5:15, and on the Atlantic Coast Line from the north due to arrive at 8 o'clock.

At the district meeting to-night will be observed the following

Under which head the Unwritten Work will be exemplified, and the Good of the Order discussed, to be participated in by all present, free and easy.

After the exercises of the foregoing programme have been completed the meeting will adjourn to the dining room of the Hotel Kennon, where an elegant banquet will be served in honor of the occasion.

RUFFIN LODGE.

It Does Itself Proud at the District Meeting K. of P. Last Night.

Pythianism is strong in Goldsboro, and Ruffin Lodge is one of the strongest and best lodges in the State. It is just like Goldsboro—what she really tries to do is done. It was a pleasure to hear Knights from Charlotte, Raleigh, Wilmington, Newberry, Kinross, Greenville, Wilson, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Henderson and Washington speak in such handsome terms of Ruffin Lodge.

Every train yesterday brought representatives to the great meeting last night.

At eight o'clock the doors of Castle Hall were closed to all but those who had been initiated into the mysteries of this great order.

The large hall was filled with one of the finest audiences that ever assembled in Goldsboro, representative men from all over the State. Grand Chancellor Franklin, the head of the order in North Carolina, presided. The music was furnished by a trained choir, selected from the home lodge. The rich, well trained voices accompanied by the sweet notes of the organ and violins made elegant music, and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The program as published in yesterday's ARGUS was carried out in full—and most interestingly; and Ruffin Lodge was made to feel proud of the graceful address of welcome on the part of the Lodge delivered by Col. A. C. Davis, who always rises to the full measure of the occasion, but who this time even surpassed himself, and praise of his address was on every lip, and he was made the recipient of many hearty congratulations.

Work in the first degree was

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently and promptly, and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

exemplified by members from Charlotte who accompanied Grand Chancellor Franklin.

Four applicants took this degree and were delighted with the beautiful and impressive ceremony.

It was late in the evening when the session in the hall adjourned and the visiting delegates and local members filed down stairs and over to the Hotel Kennon, in the spacious and brilliantly lighted dining room of which were long tables, specially prepared for the occasion, clothed in spotless linen and teeming with tempting viands, and when the army of guests were seated the scene was one such as is not often witnessed, even in so great a State as North Carolina, for it is seldom that such a body of representative North Carolinians come together in a social function—and where on earth can a representative body of North Carolinians be surpassed in appearance, intelligence, courteous deportment and solid manhood?

The banquet was elaborate in feature and bounty and faultless in cuisine, and under the personal supervision of Manager Cooke, of the Kennon, was served without a hitch, every guest receiving the personal attention of polite waiters, while good cheer and social jest prevailed to a late hour. In the midst of the feast, the local presiding officer called on Editor Jos. E. Robinson, of the ARGUS, to welcome the visiting delegates to Goldsboro, as Col. Davis had welcomed them to Ruffin Lodge, and this he did in—well, of course he took occasion to inform them in the course of his remarks of welcome, that they were in "the best town in the State."

The visiting Knights were loud in their praise of the hospitality of the "Gem City of the Plain"—yes, Goldsboro, the "Gem City"—and the best town in the State.

AT THE CAPITOL.

I am in my seventy-third year, and for fifty years I have been a great sufferer from indigestion, constipation and biliousness. I have tried all the remedies advertised for these diseases, and got no permanent relief. About one year ago, the disease assuming a more severe and dangerous form, I became very weak, and lost flesh rapidly. I commenced using Dr. Mozley's Lemon Elixir. My strength and health, my appetite and my digestion were perfectly restored, and now I feel as young and vigorous as I ever did in my life.

A Week's Happenings of the Mt. Olive Section.

ARGUS BUREAU,
JNO R. SMITH, Mgr.
March 22 1899.

The charter for the Naval Reserves has been granted.

Miss May Lou Kerr, of Clinton, is visiting Mrs. W. G. Davis.

Mr J G Martin spent Sunday and Monday in Wilson visiting friends.

If you need an electric belt, go to the J. R. Smith's for one. He will see you on easy terms.

Mr. Isaac Brown and Miss Alice Loftin will be married at the bride's home at 3 o'clock p. m. Wednesday March 22nd. They will leave on the 3:40 p. m. train for Warsaw the home of the groom. THE ARGUS Bureau with her many friends wish them many years of happiness.

Mr. H. R. Flowers whom we last week reported as dangerously sick at J. H. Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, Md., died Thursday night March 16 h. His remains arrived here Sunday morning the 19th and were buried at the cemetery at 3:30 o'clock p. m. Howard was the youngest son of the late lamented and beloved Dr. S. B. Flowers. He was 24 years old and would have graduated in Pharmacy this year. Howard was greatly esteemed by all who knew him, and the great congregation of friends that gathered around his grave to pay their last tribute, of respect, was an indication of the high esteem in which he was held by his numerous friends. After his grave was filled, it was covered with an abundance of the most beautiful flowers wreathed, into various emblems, by loving hands. May his happiness in the great eternity be as abundant as the mound of flowers that cover his grave.

The "R-st" Business Explain d
New York Evening Post.

Each glowing reports have gone out of the President's success in finding "rest" in Georgia that all the politicians will soon be in Thomasville to rest, too Vice President Hobart is already there, but, yshav! it is only to breathe the piny air. Senator Tom Platt is en route, but he is a man of too delicate perceptions to intrude upon Mr. McKinley's "rest" by hisping one word of politics. Then there is Mr. Kohlsaat (Chicago—he, too, suddenly finds it necessary to go to Thomasville to recuperate. But we may be sure that the nearest he will come to saying anything political to the president will be to thank him for appointing his own brother a federal judge in Illinois, over the protests of Senator Mason. They are all "resting" in Thomasville. Hanna is playing golf like a bappy boy, and the president goes to drive, and into the idyllic circle no thought of renoimiation ever enters. The balmy breezes may suggest raising the wind for the next campaign, but all such thoughts, we give our word for it, are sternly put by.

Why let your neighbors know it, and why give them a chance to guess you are even 5 or 10 years older? Better give them good reasons for guessing the other way.
